SUSSEX PUB SCRATCHINGS

Since the government allowed pubs to reopen on the 4th of July we estimate that 74% of all Sussex pubs have reopened. All pubs known to have re-opened are listed in this article, but we know that other pubs are also considering re-opening. Most pubs have re-opened with a range of restrictions, and those restrictions are very likely to change over time, and we recommend that you check the pub's website and/or Facebook page before visiting any pub listed here. As this edition of Sussex Drinker was being prepared, news that pubs may once again have to close in September was circulating, so the future of our pubs remains uncertain. The standard disclaimer on p54 applies to all items.

■ Broad Oak

Broad Oak: Known as the Rainbow Trout in recent years, the village's completely refurbished pub has reverted to using its original name, the Broad Oak. The building was empty and unloved for three years then re-opened shortly before the Covid-19 lockdown. In July it re-opened again, offering local real ales together with an extensive food menu, including a take away fish & chip service on Friday evenings. On a recent visit there were two beers from Long Man, one from Rother Valley and one from Old Dairy, all in good form. The garden has scenic views and a children's play area. Booking is recommended, to ensure social distancing can be adhered to. Their website shows current opening times and is where tables may be booked (<https://www.thebroadoak.co.uk/>)

Robin Hood: Re-opened Friday 10th July. Please call the pub on 01424 814277 to make a booking. Both drinks and food, full normal menu available plus takeaways. Closed Mondays and Tuesdays. The Pub has posted: Things are pretty hard for local brewers at the moment and without them we wouldn't have so many beautifully crafted ales local to Kent and Sussex. As such we have decided to buy most (around 90%) of our ales direct from local breweries and not from massive companies like we used to, which means we've had to pay a bit more for them but we feel this is, excuse the pun, a small price to pay to support them. We hope you enjoy some of the ales we have ordered! (<http://www.robin-hood.uk>)

Bru News

The Sussex Breweries Pages

Many Sussex breweries have remained open and offering a takeaway or delivery service during lockdown. Many more started brewing in anticipation of pubs re-opening after 4th July. Here we provide details of all Sussex breweries known to have re-commenced brewing.

Information here is generally supplied by the Brewery Liaison Officers (BLOs) named at the end of each report. The Brewery Liaison Coordinator for the Surrey, Sussex and Kent Area is Peter Page-Mitchell. A complete list of the breweries operating in Sussex, and their contact details, can be found at sussex.camra.org.uk/breweries:

East Hoathly

1648 operates in and around the Kings Head pub in East Hoathly, it is a village pub which aims to provide for the local community. So, the good news is that the pub is opening, all be it with restricted hours at the moment and measures are in place to ensure safety of the public and staff. Please see the website for opening hours as they are changing upon government advice. The brewery is still producing ales, though in restricted quantity for the time being.

BLO Barry Blewitt

360 DEGREES BREWING Sheffield Park

Under new management and recommenced brewing in June. Continuing with cask production but at present limited to Sussex Best Bitter, Session IPA, Pale Ale, Double Act Pale, West Coast Pale. Beers are available across Sussex, the South East, and London.

Framfield

As a response to the Corvid-19 pandemic, online sales with home delivery were introduced and proved so successful that these will remain a permanent feature. Brewing has continued throughout the crisis and the capacity of the brewery has been increased significantly to deal with demand, although no figures are currently available.

BLO John Quick

ARUNDEL

Ford, Nr Arundel

Arundel Brewery is up and brewing (along with the re-opening of their Brewhouse Project taproom), starting with an Imperial Oat Cream IPA collab called Green is Good (with the Triple Hopped podcast team) being canned along with version 6 of Clockwork IPA using a new hop called Strata and a Cryo version of Citra.

BLO Tony Ashcroft

BATTLE

Battle

Like all breweries they lost all of their Trade business overnight when the Government announced the lock down. They were fortunate that they already had licencing and their online store already in place as they switched the entire business to 100% retail. They closed all visits to the Brewery and offered free local delivery within 10 miles. They then implemented social distancing within the Brewery and undertook an exercise to move all their cask beer into Bag in Boxes.

They then started Brewing with the focus on packaging into Bottles and Bag in Boxes.

The overwhelming support they have received from their loyal customers has been unbelievable and they can't thank them enough. They are confident that with the continued support of their customers they will get through this and look forward to re-opening the Brewery and delivering to the great local pubs that have supported them over the years.

BLO Mac McCutcheon

BEDLAM

There is an online shop via the brewery website which is working well with deliveries being delivered to private addresses and included are Mini Kegs containing 5L of brewery fresh beer which are delivered on a Thursday and Friday in Sussex within 20miles of the brewery.

BEER ME

Eastbourne

Beer Me is very proud to now feature 10 Beers on tap at The Belgian Cafe. Following the success of Mango Unchained they have introduced Three new mango style beers: Mango Reggae (IPA meets Mango), Mango In Black (A dark & Chocolate Malt Beer with a light Mango infusion) and Mango Loco (a fantastic 9% Belgian Triple with a Mango Kick). They are now offering a Beerbalance service (7 days a week Beer delivery directly to your doorstep) and you are also welcome to collect from the brewery (Sunday to Friday 5pm). It's been a very challenging 3 months and they would like to thank everybody who's been supporting them during this time.

BREW STUDIO

Sompting

This period of time has been and continues to be very challenging for all breweries and brew studio is no exception.

They will be continuing to develop interesting and bold flavourful beers ready for when our much loved establishments re-open their doors. They are also looking into a home delivery service for local residents within a few miles of Sompting so they can keep the brews flowing!

BURNING SKY

Firle

Cask ale production stopped at the start of lockdown. Pre-orders were cancelled but, amazingly, most remaining stock was sold as some pubs started take-away. Initially more than 50% of staff were furloughed but they have gradually been bringing them back. Brewing for bottling and canning continued throughout lockdown with production for May and June at roughly 70-80%. Limited cask ale production resumed in mid-July. On-line sales have been very good.

BLO Ian Hodge

CELLAR HEAD

Flimwell

Cellar head went into 'lockdown', scaling back brewing activity and then developed their on-line ordering service. With their Taproom reopened, they are offering some of the standard brews.

BLO Philip Banister

CHAPEAU BREWING

Horsham

Chapeau have continued to serve the beer drinkers of Horsham through these extraordinary times. Home drinkers have kept the brewery very busy both through off-sale from the brewery and via home delivery. There is one new beer to report: Breakaway

FIREBIRD

Horsham

Firebird is opening for onsite drinking on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays from 17th July. Friday sessions must be pre-booked. The shop is open for off-sales as normal. Online ordering and free local delivery are also available. The upstairs bar is being refurbished and should be completed by the end of the month.

BLO Dave Sharp

FRANKLINS

Ringmer

Franklins have adapted their business to offer home delivered cask, keg and can beer with free deliveries in the local area. There's an ever changing roster of beers with two new beers, Technicolour Chainsaw (Extra pale ale) and Blue Sky Drinking (sour ale) coming soon in can.

Dedicated shop website is <https://franklinsbrewingco.selz.com>. There're back brewing full time and should have a full cask range available now. They also now have an extensive can range including Super Soaker, 4.5%, Pils To Swallow, 4.7%, Go Man Go, 4.0%, Technicolour Chainsaw, 5.8% and Blue Sky Drinking. 3.0%. They haven't brewed since lockdown but are selling beer in 2 pint sterilised milk cartons takeaway only and are due to start brewing again shortly. All our staff have been furloughed leaving only the directors running the business.

BLO Peter Mitchell

HARVEY'S

Lewes

Harvey's started lockdown at 4.6% of normal production levels and with 85% staff furloughed. With incredible on line sales production has steadily increased from brewing every three weeks, as a means of keeping their yeast turning over, to once or twice a week. By mid-June production was approaching 33% of normal levels with packaged and cask beers evenly split. Furloughed staff has gradually reduced to 65%.

Lockdown has provided the opportunity to carry out maintenance and redecoration normally impossible. They intend to hold back on the shop for a while as they are operating effectively from the depot in Davey's Lane, with customers taking advantage of 'click and collect' and the new pop-up shop operating from 10 am to 4 pm Mon to Fri. Head Brewer Miles Jenner wrote to me that I cannot tell you what a joy it is to see active fermentations. For three weeks the tuns were empty. I have visited many beautiful breweries that were in the process of being shut down. It is a soulless experience and I found myself wandering through the fermenting room thinking 'well, this is what it would be like'. Thankfully, we have moved on.

KISSINGGATE

Lower Beeding

Gary and Bunny maintained a very busy schedule throughout lockdown by providing a choice of up to ten cask and nine bottled beers for either takeaway or home delivery. Kissinggate's takeaway counter enabled customers a safe way to buy beer, cider and also take home freshly made savouries and cakes from the brewery kitchen. High demand for home deliveries in the Horsham and Crawley areas presented new challenges to the business. A double mash imperial stout Raisin the Bar 12% was served alfresco on Saturday 4th July in celebration of pub openings. For now the Kissinggate team are happy to serve drinks and food in the courtyard or surrounding lawns but have made the decision not to open the brewery taproom until further notice.

Lodsworth, Petworth

As soon as the CV19 started the brewery put in place a drive through pick up system from the brewery front door, and this has been very busy, brewing has not dropped below normal times. Brewing of Sundowner 4.2% is now no longer a cask ale, bottle only, also a new beer in bottle is Session I.P.A. 3.8%. Cask beer Half Way To Heaven is no longer made but new is Session Bitter 3.5% it is a golden, malty, tasty, zesty low gravity beer. We think that we are the first brewery doing a Three Word Beer (available only from the brew house doorway) Hence, Mute, Lizards these will be one off beers, and the first one is a West Coast Pale Ale 4.3% a well hopped, zesty blond, selling well.

Branch Awards

Sussex branches made their decisions regarding their awards (Pub of the Year, Cider Pub of the Year and Club of the Year), earlier in the year, but in most cases they were not able to make presentations before lockdown commenced. Due to lockdown, the normal process of competitions for awards at a county, regional, super-regional and national level have all been cancelled.

Here we take the opportunity to celebrate these branch pub awards.

The Arun & Adur Branch Pub of the Year is the Fox & Finch Alehouse, Worthing. It is a new micro opened in 2019, run by a young friendly couple, Mike & Jo Saveen, (pictured on the left), and has got off to a flying start. Located in a residential part of town where good real ale was in short supply.

The Brighton & South Downs Branch Pub of the Year is the Duke of Wellington, Shoreham-by-Sea. The panel were impressed with the range and quality of the cask ales, ciders and craft beers on offer in this friendly no frills pub and feel the award was well deserved.

Their Cider Pub of the Year is the Old Star Ale & Cider House, Shoreham-by-Sea.

The North East Sussex Branch Pub of the Year is the Hare & Hounds, Framfield. Their Cider Pub of the Year is the Kings Head at East Hoathly.

In North Sussex, the vote for Pub of the Year was a tight contest between three branch favourites. The winner was the Anchor Tap in Horsham, which was back to its best in the months before lockdown. The team are hoping to reopen in September, and we look forward to presenting them with the newly enlarged shield then. A huge thank you to Simon at the White Horse in Maplehurst for adding an outer ring to the shield, which has given us space for another 25 years of award winners. The White Horse was one of this year's runners up, along with the Brewery Shades in Crawley, both of which have now thankfully reopened, albeit with amended opening times. The Brewery Shades in Crawley was also the branch Cider Pub of the Year.

The South East Sussex Branch Pub of the Year is the Waterworks, Rye. The Waterworks is a micropub in Rye's town centre, serving seven real ales, plus its house beer and twelve ciders and perries. It has a welcoming and humorous ambiance generated by landlord David Roder and his staff, which encourages interaction among patrons. Its beers are regularly scored highly by branch members and CAMRA members from other branches alike; the National Beer Scoring System (beer quality) scores show that it is the most visited pub in the town.

The South East Sussex branch also recently made the following awards for the Club of the Year to Karen and Peter of the Albatross Club RAFA, Bexhill, Branch Club of the Year, and for the Cider/Perry Pub of the Year to the Jolly Fisherman, Hastings, and to the runner up the George Hotel, Hailsham.

The Western Sussex Branch Pub of the Year is the Inglenook, Pagham. The Inglenook is a well-established hotel and restaurant in Pagham in a village unusually also served by three other pubs. This is not the first time that it has been voted pub of the year which is unusual for this type of establishment. However, when you delve under the surface you will discover two truly wonderful cottage style bars both incorporating large welcoming fires, a beautiful large garden with several shady outbuildings and a newly installed pizza oven. There is also a delicious menu and an ever changing very keenly priced beer list incorporating ales from best small brewers from far and wide around the British Isles and occasionally from further afield. Added to the exceptionally warm welcome provided by long time owners Tony Honour and his wife Sarah along with mother Edna, together with their septuagenarian parrot and helpful staff and you will understand why the Inglenook is a consistent favourite among CAMRA members.
